

Learn More About Us

Marge Silva, President of Welcome.com, has a long family history in retail business... coming from the East Coast with numerous business ventures including establishing a welcome service.

She partnered with the Founder of Tucson Welcome.com which was established in 1996, running the Southern Pima County Operation.

Marge has taken over the reins of this unique business with a focus on establishing long lasting relationships between the growing newcomer populations and the local community businesses.

INTERESTED IN JOINING OUR SALES TEAM?

Part time and full time positions are available. Please email us at info@tucsonwelcome.com.