TucsonWelcome.com is committed to protecting the privacy of our customer's personal information. By using this website, you agree to the following policy.

This Policy explains how we gather and use the information that we collect from our website, www.TucsonWelcome.com.

This policy may change over time. Amendments to this statement will be posted at this URL and will be effective when posted. Your continued use of this site following the posting of any amendment, modification or change shall constitute your acceptance there of.

Collection & Use of Information:

When users register on the www.TucsonWelcome.com site, the site collects several types of information. The site collects contact information such as name and e-mail address.

Communications:

Information collected will be used in strict confidence to administer periodic email news announcements.

Site Monitoring & Maintenance:

Information from user registration is used to measure the user traffic of various sections of the site. This information is used on an aggregate level only, and the site does not record the specific content viewed by an individual user.

We may also employ other companies and individuals to perform functions on our behalf. Examples include: sending email, removing repetitive information from customer lists, analyzing data, and providing customer service. They have access to personal information needed to perform their functions, but may not use it for other purposes.

In certain circumstances, we may share your customer information with trusted service providers that need access to your information to provide operational or other support services. We also may provide information to regulatory authorities and law enforcement officials in accordance with applicable law or when we otherwise believe in good judgement.

Children:

We do not specifically collect online contact information from children nor do we target or sell products for purchase by children.

Security:

This Website has industry standard security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. While there is no such thing as "perfect security" on the Internet, we will take reasonable steps to insure the safety of your personal information.
